UNIVERSITY MENNONITE CHURCH
Sunday Service June 9, 2019 9:30 am

Prelude – Becky Kephart

Call to Worship – Fran Osseo-Asare

We gather as God's beloved children –

However glad we are, however out of sorts we are.

We come together as a people whom Jesus calls into community –

So this becomes a place where all are welcome.

We have come to give thanks, to pray and sing, to be with others –

Let us worship God.

Lighting the Peace Lamp

Hymn – STJ #16, Praise with joy the world's Creator

Welcome and Introduction of Visitors

Children's Time – Jess McCormick

Offering

Offertory – HWB #384, We give thee but thine own (vv. 1 & 2)

Prayer

Scripture Readings

1 Corinthians 11: 27-34 (p. 933)

Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord. Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves. For this reason many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. If you are hungry, eat at home, so that when you come together, it will not be for your condemnation. About the other things I will give instructions when I come.

Mark 14: 22-25 (p. 827)

While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Sermon – Kate Heinzl, "Restoring Communion"

Confession

Leader: Healing God, you invite us to open our hearts and lives to your cleansing presence. You promise that whatever is fragile or weak or broken can be restored in your gracious love.
Touch us tenderly as we wait in silence.

(time of silence)

All: Refresh our souls with your abundant mercy, and feed us with your grace.

Make us ministers of peace to one another,

In your church, and in all the world.

We pray in the name of Jesus, bringer of Life, who heals and redeems us all. Amen

Communion

Hymn – HWB #472, I am the Bread of life

Sharing and Prayer – Kate Heinzl

Announcements

Benediction

Sending Song – HWB #422, Bwana awabariki (May God grant you a blessing)

“This is my body”

This body knows what it is like to have a nice house and a good job

It knows what it is like to feel uneasy about being wealthy

And it knows what it is like to be lonely, a stranger

It knows what it is like to live under a bush in a city park

It knows what it is like to try to sleep in a rain-soaked sleeping bag

This body knows what it is like to sit politely in meetings

And it knows how to howl in protest at injustice

It knows what it is like to eat right and exercise often

And it knows what it is like to wake up the morning after drinking a fifth of vodka

This body knows what it is like to do a triple flip on the bars of a jungle gym

And what it is like to lie paralyzed in a hospital bed for five years

This body knows what it is like to make love

And to make war

This body knows what it is like to be shunned because of the way it looks

And to be wanted because of the way it looks

This body knows what it is like to be afraid even of being afraid

And it knows what it is like to delight in taking crazy chances

This body knows what it is like to be treated like an any body instead of like a some body.

“This is my body.”

Take it in, take it on: receive the body of Christ.

Sunday School: There will be adult Sunday school in the sanctuary at 11:10 following the service. This is the last day of Sunday school for the summer. There will be childcare for the children, whose Sunday school ended last week. Sunday school for all ages will resume in September.

We will have a fellowship meal today at noon.

Everyone is invited to stay for a delicious carry-in meal. There is always enough for everyone and you are invited to stay whether you planned to or not. There will be labels for vegan, vegetarian, gluten free, and especially any dishes containing nuts.

Congratulations to our high school senior Hannah Martin. A card and hymnal are downstairs this morning for all to sign. Today we will celebrate Hannah's graduation with Meyer Dairy ice cream cake during the fellowship meal.

A UMC canoe trip is planned for Sunday afternoon, June 30, on Bald Eagle Creek from Milesburg to Bald Eagle Lake. This 5-mile section of the creek is a remote stretch that winds through some gorgeous scenery. We'll eat bagged lunches after church before heading out and should be home by 6 pm. Please let Marvin Hall (231-1447, mhh2@psu.edu) know so that he can make arrangements for canoes and add you to the “canoe trip” email list.

3rd Way Collective Highlights

Our fifth school year at Penn State has come to an end! From May through July, Campus Pastor Ben is on Sabbatical - three months for rest, reflection, and time with family. You can read his written reflections of this time at <http://www.3rdwaycollective.org/category/blog/>

For our full schedule and to find out how to support this ministry please visit 3rdWayCollective.org or contact ben@3rdwaycollective.org.

Kate will be on vacation starting this afternoon through Monday, June 17, preparing for and celebrating the wedding of her son, Jesse, in Lancaster. Please contact one of the elders (Joel, Rosita, Leland) with any needs. The elders will be in touch with Kate if there are emergencies she needs to know about. Remember her and her family in your prayers as they gather this week!
