Prayer Requests

MMN: Mennonite Mission Network requests prayer for volunteers willing to help at Fresno's MCC relief sale held the first weekend in April. Pray also for Naomi Tice of Mennonite Mission Network, who serves with Urban Light in the United Kingdom. Pray for wisdom and patience in this ministry of engaging with young adult volunteers who help lead youth and children's clubs.

MEA: Pray for all the Mennonite institutes, schools, colleges, universities, seminaries, particularly for Seminario Bíblico Anabautista Hispano. Pray that they focus on new discoveries and the pursuit of wisdom in the word of God.

Sunday School: There will be Sunday school at 11:10 following the service. There are classes for children in the basement, and a discussion for adults in the sanctuary.

Sound System Volunteers Needed

Each Sunday, a volunteer ensures our worship service sounds great and is recorded and then uploaded to our web site. We seek additional volunteers to help with this important duty. No prior sound experience is necessary, but it helps to feel comfortable with a computer. Volunteers help with the sound about once a month and schedules are flexible. Let Mike Bratt know if you can help out with this important church duty.

Stewardship University, a ministry partnership between Everence and our local faith community, is coming to Lancaster on Saturday, March 2, 2019. One of our workshops is about building family resilience – specifically, how relationships heal. Bekah Bowland and Sarah Kim, both from Bridge of Hope, will explore resilience, trauma and its causes, and the responses to trauma people may have. For more information or to register, contact Lynette Morales at (717) 653-6662, lynettemorales@everence.com, or visit stewardshipuniversity.com.

New to UMC Library

Making Friends among the Taliban: A Peacemaker's Journey in Afghanistan by Jonathan P. Larson Herald Press (2012):1st ed., 136 pages.

“In Making Friends among the Taliban, childhood friend Jonathan Larson retraces Dan Terry’s nearly forty years in Afghanistan and, through interviews and eye witness accounts, relays Dan’s incredible way of daily living. Facing famine, poverty, prison, and rifle muzzles—and across three decades of kings, the Red Army, warlords, the Taliban, and the American-led coalition—Dan found improbable friendships across the front lines of conflict and inspired small Afghan communities to find a better way of life. This inspirational narrative of Dan’s life and friendships offers a model for living authentically wherever we are.” Mennomedia.org

Dan Terry, 64, was slain along with nine other medical aid workers (including Glen D. Lapp, RN Lancaster, PA) August 9, 2010.

This book can be found on the library table’s New Book Shelf.

Wanted: Singers for Ecumenical Performance of Trotta’s Seven Last Words. If you love choral music, you are invited to sing in the tenth annual ecumenical choir Lenten concert on April 3 from 7-8 pm at Grace Lutheran Church in downtown State College. Directed by Laurel Sanders, the free concert will feature Michael John Trotta’s seven-movement masterwork for choir and 14-piece chamber orchestra as well as Howard Goodall’s The Lord is My Shepherd. Rehearsals are on Sunday afternoons from 2-4 pm at Grace Lutheran Church beginning February 24. Music will be provided to singers at no cost and there are no auditions; some music-reading skills are helpful, but all are welcome. For details or to sign up, contact Laurel Sanders at lsanders@glcpa.org or call (814) 238-2478.

Our church maintains a pictorial directory for regular attenders. The directory can be accessed online at members.instantchurchdirectory.com or on the Instant Church Directory smart phone app. A printed copy can also be provided if you would like one. If you have questions about using the directory, corrections/updates, or would like to be added to the directory, contact Joel Weidner (joelpsu82@outlook.com).

3rd Way Collective Highlights

This weekend Campus Pastor Ben and three Penn State students are sharing about our unique campus ministry at University Mennonite Church. Later this week we will be welcoming Austin Channing Brown to the Penn State campus for her talk based on her powerful book, I’m Still Here: Black Dignity in a World Made for Whiteness. This event takes place at the HUB Freeman Auditorium at 7pm on Wednesday evening. Also consider attending Community & Campus in Unity’s monthly meeting in the Municipal Building on Monday at 5pm, after the Standing at the Gates for Justice vigil at the Allen Street Gates which takes place every Monday at 4pm.

For our full schedule and to find out how to support this ministry please visit 3rdWayCollective.org or contact ben@3rdwaycollective.org. A reflection is posted each month at <http://www.3rdwaycollective.org/category/blog/>

We will have a congregational business meeting on Sunday, February 17, 2019 at 11 am, following the worship service. Please get any reports or other documents to Karen Rath (karenrath@gmail.com) by February 10.
