But I tell you, look around you,
 and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting.
 The reaper is already receiving wages,
 and is gathering fruit for eternal life,
 so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.
 John 4: 35-36

*I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.
 John 10:10*

And this is eternal life, that they may know you,
 John 17:3

very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.
 I am the bread of life...
 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day, John 6:47-48, 54

UNIVERSITY MENNONITE CHURCH
Sunday Service June 30, 2019 9:30 am

Prelude – Hal Kunkel

Call to Worship

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Lifting our voices in song as we first own our fallenness and contrition, and then celebrate the Good News of redemption:
HWB #143, Amazing grace

Lighting the Peace Lamp

Hymns – HWB #530, What wondrous love is this
HWB #472, I am the Bread of life

Children's Time – Marvin Hall

Offering

Scripture Readings

John 4:34-36 (p. 865)

Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, ‘Four months more, then comes the harvest’? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.”

John 6:40-54 (p. 868 or insert)

John 10:10 (p. 872)

“The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”

John 17:1-5 (p. 879)

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.”

Sermon – Kate Heinzel

Hymn of Response – HWB #614, In the bulb there is a flower

Sending Hymn – HWB #615, Shall we gather at the river

"This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day." Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day."
