There is a strength, a power even,
in understanding brokenness,
because embracing our brokenness
creates a need and desire for mercy,
and perhaps a corresponding need to show mercy.

When you experience mercy,
you learn things that are hard to learn otherwise.
You see things you can't otherwise see;
you hear things you can't otherwise hear.
You begin to recognize the humanity that resides in each of us.

Sunday School: There is no Sunday school today. On Sunday, September 1, Carl Keener is preaching on the moral challenges of justice, inequality and forgiveness found in the stories of Jacob/Esau and Daniel and Susanna and as well as parts of Ecclesiastes. We will have a sermon discussion after the service. Please consider staying for a cup of coffee and conversation with Carl about the sermon. Children's Sunday school will not begin until Sunday, September 15, when there will also be a congregational business meeting at 11 am. Both children and adults will have Sunday school from September 22 onwards.

Through September 22, we'll be collecting items for MCC school kits to be shared with children who need school supplies around the world.

Here's what each school kit includes:

- 4 spiral or perforated-pages notebooks (8.5 in x 10.5 in and 70 sheets)
- 8 new unsharpened pencils (plain yellow or neutral designs)
- 1 ruler (flat, good quality; must indicate 30 cm; inch markings optional)
- 12 colored pencils (in packaging)
- 1 large eraser
- 2 new black or blue ballpoint pens
- 1 small all-metal pencil sharpener, 1 or 2 holes (plastic not accepted)

Don't forget to sign up for the Camp Hebron annual retreat on September 6-8 if you plan to attend. Sign-up sheets are on the bulletin board by the nursery.

3rd Way Collective Highlights: On Monday a new semester begins at Penn State! Our welcome-back events this week include Wednesday's Involvement Fair on campus, as well as a collaborative What's Your Word? event in front of Palmer Museum on Friday at 5pm where students can create a metal token with their word for the new school year, eat pizza, and get to know each other. We recently created a Justice-Minded Prayer Walk that can be found at our website.

If you would like to help out this semester by hosting a home cooked meal, joining us for a pub night, or helping to plan or coordinate some other event or activity, please contact Ben directly!
