3rd Way Collective Highlights

Campus Pastor Ben is away this weekend preaching at Stahl Mennonite Church. This week's events include a visit from the hosts of the incredible Harry Potter & the Sacred Text podcast - Monday at 7pm in Foster Auditorium. All are welcome to head to Houseasaurus for our first pizza/movie night of the semester on Thursday at 7pm. We also recently created a Justice-Minded Prayer Walk that can be found at our web site.

If you would like to help this semester by hosting a home-cooked meal, joining us for a pub night, or helping to plan or coordinate some other event or activity, please contact Ben directly!

For our full schedule and to find out how to support this ministry, please visit 3rdWayCollective.org or contact ben@3rdwaycollective.org.

12 Scriptures Project: EVERYONE, regardless if you submitted scriptures up to this point, is welcomed to be a part of the voting process as we choose which 12 scriptures are our "canon inside the canon." In the hallway outside the fellowship hall you'll find the scripture verses named. Take up to 12 yellow sticky notes (stored on the blue cubbies) and place one on a verse that you believe is a scripture that helps lead us, shape us, teach us what it means to be the body of Christ.

Voting will continue through the end of September. Join us in this discerning process.

Campus lecture, The Challenge of Translating the Bible, by Robert Alter, professor in the graduate school and emeritus professor of Hebrew and comparative literature, University of California, Berkeley. Tuesday, September 24, 5:30 pm in 112 Chambers building. Sponsored by the Jewish Studies program.
