UNIVERSITY MENNONITE CHURCH

Sunday June 28, 2020 Virtual Worship Service

Welcome and intro to Zoom worship – Ben Wideman

Prelude video - I Know that my Redeemer Lives

Call to worship

Scripture - Job 14: 7-15 read by Rebekah Douglass

*For there is hope for a tree,
if it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
and that its shoots will not cease.
Though its root grows old in the earth,
and its stump dies in the ground,
yet at the scent of water it will bud
and put forth branches like a young plant.
But mortals die, and are laid low;
humans expire, and where are they?
As waters fail from a lake,
and a river wastes away and dries up,
so mortals lie down and do not rise again;
until the heavens are no more, they will not awake
or be roused out of their sleep.
O that you would hide me in Sheol,
that you would conceal me until your wrath is past,
that you would appoint me a set time, and remember me!
If mortals die, will they live again?
All the days of my service I would wait
until my release should come.
You would call, and I would answer you;
you would long for the work of your hands.*

Scripture - Job 19:21-27 read by Carl Keener

*Have pity on me, my friends, have pity on me,
for the hand of God has struck me.*

Why do you pursue me like God does?

'O that my words were written down!

O that they were inscribed in a book!

*O that with an iron pen and with lead
they were engraved on a rock forever!*

For I know that my redeemer lives,

and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;

and after my skin has been thus destroyed,

then in my flesh I shall see God,

whom I will see for myself, and whom my own eyes will behold, and not another.

My heart grows faint within me.
