Contradictions

Rooted in the love of Christ, we welcome each one here today—we welcome your mind, body, and spirit; we welcome your faith and your doubts; your joys and your sorrows. Wherever you come from, whatever your age, and whomever you love...
Whoever you are, you are welcome and affirmed here.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Prelude – Becky Kephart

Welcome & prayer – Ben Wideman

Call to worship

One: Our scriptures are like a library, not a single book; a conversation, not a decree. We gather to worship a God who defies simple explanation, a God of expansive mystery.

All: We come ready to wrestle with the stories—the fiery commands and the gentle whisper, the possibility of judgment and the flood of mercy.

One: The prophets speak of swords beaten into plowshares, yet the Son of Man sometimes brought division. The scriptures tell us to be still and know God, and also to run the race with endurance.

All: We acknowledge the tensions: the ancient law alongside new grace, the call to radical community against the need for solitary prayer.

One: Let us not fear the friction, for in the space between seemingly opposite truths, we often find a more profound reality. Let us celebrate the complexity of a God big enough to hold it all.

All: We open our hearts to the expansive Word, trusting that the contradictions are an invitation to deeper faith. May we gather together in worship.

Scripture – some contradictions, read by Paula Droege and Jon Brockopp

John 14: 25-27

²⁵ “All this I have spoken while still with you. ²⁶ But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. ²⁷ Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Matthew 5:9

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Exodus 20:12

¹² “Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you.

Matthew 5:43-45

⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor^[i] and hate your enemy.’ ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ that you may be children of your Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:34-36

³⁴ “Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I have come to turn

“a man against his father,
a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law —

³⁶ a man’s enemies will be the members of his own household.’^[c]

Children in UMC worship – Children through fifth grade are invited to come to the front of the sanctuary for children's time. After children's time, the nursery is available for children ages four and under. (Parents, please check to see if the nursery is staffed; if not, please stay with your child.) Children of all ages are also welcome to remain in the sanctuary for the service or to gather at the table in the back for quiet activities using the materials provided.

Sunday school at UMC this year will include a mix of intergenerational gatherings and traditional age-divided class. On first Sundays, communion is extended into the foyer after the service with snacks and discussion questions for all - an opportunity for conversation with a variety of ages. On second, fourth and fifth Sundays, adults meet in the sanctuary, and there are classes for children through middle school age. On third Sundays, all are invited to the basement for an intergenerational class led by Carmen Groff. Sunday school will continue through the end of May and begin again in September.
