MLK Jr. Movie Screening

King In The Wilderness

When: Saturday, January 31. Time TBD

Where: HUB-Robeson Center, Freeman Auditorium

The Paul Robeson Cultural Center and Martin Luther King Student Coordinating Committee, invites the State College community to a screening of King in the Wilderness on Saturday, January 31. King in the Wilderness chronicles the final chapters of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s life, offering an intimate portrait of a leader navigating intense criticism from across the political spectrum. As King's steadfast commitment to nonviolence was challenged by both the rising Black Power movement and national political leaders, his moral vision became a profound testing point for a nation on the brink of upheaval. Drawing on reflections from those who knew him best — notably the members of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) — the film unpacks the rarely explored final years of Dr. King's life, revealing new perspectives on his leadership, his philosophy of nonviolence, and the internal struggles he faced prior to his assassination in 1968. This screening invites viewers to engage more deeply with Dr. King's legacy by grappling with the complexities, courage, and convictions that defined his final years.

Children in UMC worship – Children through fifth grade are invited to come to the front of the sanctuary for children's time. After children's time, the nursery is available for children ages four and under. (Parents, please check to see if the nursery is staffed; if not, please stay with your child.) Children of all ages are also welcome to remain in the sanctuary for the service or to gather at the table in the back for quiet activities using the materials provided.

Sunday school at UMC this year will include a mix of intergenerational gatherings and traditional age-divided class. On first Sundays, communion is extended into the foyer after the service with snacks and discussion questions for all - an opportunity for conversation with a variety of ages. On second, fourth and fifth Sundays, adults meet in the sanctuary, and there are classes for children through middle school age. On third Sundays, all are invited to the basement for an intergenerational class led by Carmen Groff. Sunday school will continue through the end of May and begin again in September.

Climate Cafe to Share Eco-Anxiety Change is challenging; talking with others helps.

Feeling climate distressed and wanting to share your concerns with like-minded people?

Please come to this free event co-sponsored by the State College Friends' Climate Justice Working Group and Foxdale's Climate Care committee. Co-Facilitators are: Jackie Bonomo, has led online Climate Cafes for Climate Witness Stewards and practiced peer counseling for 50 years; Andy McKinnon is a licensed social worker, therapist and climate activist and Stacey Budd is the Program Director for Team Development at Shaver's Creek.

This Climate Cafe is organized to be a confidential space to share climate anxiety and grief over loss due to climate chaos. The world as we knew it is changing due to our previous inattention/denial of the consequences of our way of living on our planet. In clearly seeing this reality, many of us are fearful, angry and sad and the sharing of our losses and concerns helps. We want to:

- Reduce feeling overwhelmed
- Face the feelings and keep seeing climate reality
- Stay actively engaged with the climate problem
- Keep functioning well while accepting the reality of climate change, both in our everyday lives, as well as act for change to reduce the threat of climate rupture.

7:00 PM to 8:30 PM on Thursday, Feb. 12

State College Friends Meeting - 611 E. Prospect Avenue, State College

The event is free, please reserve your space:
